NAKED ICONOCLASTS FIGHTING THE YOKE

1. Call to order

2. Marilyn appointed chair.

3. MOTION (Korky) s. Greg. Accept minutes of meeting #10 as written. PASSED

4. Dance: Discussion on hiring Flying Folk Army; cost seemed prohibitive. Korky suggested we bargain with them; request only some of the band members perform, etc.

MOTION (Marilyn) s. Greg. We approach Flying Folk Army with $450 and percentage ceiling, or else approach "Wreck Beach Co-op" and other bands.

AMENDMENT (Korky) Ask if they will play for $300 plus percentage initially. Korky & Greg will negotiate. PASSED unanimously

5. Greg proposed a NIFTY newsletter. Ian suggested using 100% recycled, unbleached paper. Marilyn suggested the newsletter encourage its readers to join or donate. Korky proposed that Korky, Greg & Marilyn form an editorial committee. Marilyn said we should accept advertising from progressive groups. Ian named the Van Tan club.

MOTION (Korky) s. Ian That we strike a committee to draft a NIFTY newsletter, print however many copies we can get for up to $100. Korky, Marilyn & Greg to be on committee. Allow ads from progressive groups. Try to get 100% recycled, unbleached paper. PASSED unanimously.

6. Greg mentioned that NATURALLY magazine had offered us a free subscription as long as we sent them copies of our member communications. This presents another motivation for getting a newsletter together.

7. Greg proposed some demonstrations. Marilyn said it was a bad idea unless people came out. Korky wondered how we could attract enthusiasm and media attention, and proposed a 'million moon march'.

MOTION (Korky) That we stage a million moon march, directed possibly at some public official, combined with a topfree march, ending with a picnic, this summer. FAILED for lack of second

MOTION (Marilyn) s. Korky Mention in the newsletter that we want to do an outdoor public event, but need commitment of participants. Put out a blurb at a dance. PASSED unanimously

MOTION (Marilyn) s. Greg That we come up with designs for the next NIFTY meeting. PASSED unanimously
